

Swarthmore Environmental Advisory Council
MEETING MINUTES
April 28, 2015

In Attendance: Susan Kelly, Chair; Members: Nancy English, Tracy Bouvette; Associate Members: Lauren McKinney, representative of Borough Council.

Called to Order – 7:35

Quorum was not in attendance. No approval of past meeting minutes occurred.

Old Business:

Growing Green Grant:

Grant contract still in production with the DEP. Lack of staff at DEP impacting speed of contracting. At award in January, DEP expected contracts completed between DEP and Borough by May or June.

Bamboo Ordinance:

On agenda for May Borough Council meeting.

CAC Work Day:

22 people attended to support clean up in Little Crum Creek Park. Charlie Pell and Tim Stone donated time and equipment to remove large trees with chain saws. Still need to complete mulching of trees in park. Will convene small group in May to address this issue. Bamboo (arrow bamboo) removed from the park will be brought to Farmers Market and if sold proceeds will be donated to Centennial Fund.

New Business:

Little Crum Creek Park:

Girl Scout Troop looking to do butterfly garden installation. Sue will attend meeting with them to discuss options.

Park and Rec Ordinance on Use of Borough Parks

Reviewed language being proposed and added amendments suggested by Doug Hasbrook.
